- Interception at Minnesota in Week 4 halted his streak of 159 passing attempts without being picked off...The streak ranks No. 3 in franchise history, behind only Brett Favre (163 in 2001-02) and Starr (294 in 1964-65) in the team record books...Rodgers' streak of 157 attempts (Week 15, 2005-Week 4, 2008) ranks fourth in team annals...Had a streak of 134 passes without a pick snapped in the first quarter vs. Baltimore.
- His 316 rushing yards on the season were good for No. 5 in franchise history and the most by a Packers QB since Don Majkowski posted 358 in 1989.
- With 43 yards rushing vs. Cincinnati (Sept. 20) and 38 yards at St. Louis (Sept. 27), became the first Packers quarterback to rush for 35-plus yards in back-to-back games since Majkowski (Sept. 23-Sept. 30, 1990).
- His five rushing TDs were the most by a Packers QB since Majkowski had five in 1989.
- Now has had four or more rushing TDs in back-to-back seasons to become just the third Packers QB to accomplish that feat (Tobin Rote, 1954-56; Scott Hunter, 1971-72).
- His streak of 32 straight starts ranks tied for sixth in the league among active quarterbacks.

- In 2008, became the first quarterback other than Favre to start a Packers game since Majkowski, Sept. 20, 1992.

71 Josh Sitton, G, 2nd Year, Central Florida

2009 SEASON: Started all 16 games at RG, the only Packers offensive lineman to open every game at one spot...Part of line that blocked for RB Ryan Grant's career-high 1,253 rushing yards, his second straight 1,200-yard season, and member of an offense that ranked No. 6 in total yards... ► at Arizona (Wild Card, 1/10): With Packers trailing 17-0 and the Cardinals threatening to score again, stripped Fitzgerald after he made a short catch over the middle at Arizona's 16; Matthews recovered, taking the fumble out to Green Bay's 48...Finished game with seven tackles (all solo).

Streaks & Milestones

- Holds the franchise record with eight defensive TDs (seven interceptions, one fumble return), eclipsing Herb Adderley and Darren Sharper (seven each) for the team mark.
- His three interception returns for touchdowns in 2009 tied him with Adderley (1966) and teammate Nick Collins (2008) for the team record.
- Posted his 40th career interception at Cleveland in Week 7 and currently has 45, with more than half of those (28) coming in his four seasons in Green Bay.
- Is tied for first in team history with seven interceptions for touchdowns, matching Adderley's franchise record.
- Is the only player in franchise history to score on an interception in four consecutive seasons.
- Only the second player in team history (Bobby Dillon) to post seven-plus interceptions in three seasons.
- Is second in the NFL for most interceptions since 2006 with 27, trailing only Philadelphia's Asante Samuel (29).
- His six interception returns for touchdowns since 2006 lead the NFL.
- His eight career interception returns for touchdowns tie him for No. 6 in NFL history with Eric Allen (1988-2001).
- Is the only player in NFL history (since sacks became an official statistic in 1982) to post seven interceptions and two sacks in back-to-back seasons (2008-09).
- Is only the fourth in NFL history (since 1982) and the first since Baltimore's Ed Reed in 2004 to post nine interceptions and two sacks in the same season.
- His five sacks over the past two seasons are tied (with Cincinnati's Chinedum Ndukwe) for the most by any defensive back in the NFL.
- First among active NFL cornerbacks with 22 career forced fumbles.
- Against Dallas in Week 10, became the first NFL player to record two forced fumbles, an interception and a sack in a game since Steelers linebacker James Harrison accomplished the feat two years ago to the day vs. Baltimore on Nov. 15, 2007. In that contest, Harrison posted three forced fumbles, 3½ sacks and an interception.
- In 2009, along with secondary mates Tramon Williams, Nick Collins and Atari Bigby, became first Packers quartet to each post four-plus interceptions in a season since 1967.
